Progress on The Land

Chief of Staff David Pringle and his fiancée Laura Lee have had much-needed physical assistance from volunteers for most of May, plus the help of a local handyman. The farmhouse that was already over 100 years old when Chairman Williams lived in it for two years in the early 1990s will again be habitable in June after years of neglect and abandonment.

Here is David's report on the status of our West Virginia property:

I am currently in West Virginia, working to rebuild the National Alliance facilities there. I see that the squatters have gone to one of the trashier anonymous "pro-White" forums and started the Internet cycle of ad hominem attacks, baseless accusations, and libel. Good for them.

I saw the people allied against Will Williams yesterday. What a group! They called the police who came out and were professional and courteous. I also drilled the locks out and did a complete inspection of the property. The keys have been “lost” according to these “people.” Gliebe, Walker, Ring, and Dr. Bob need to be held accountable, via tar and feathers at the very least. The looting, the selling-off of Alliance property, and the lack of care that has taken place is shocking.

Luckily it can all be rebuilt and repaired — which is what I intend to do... personally.

The best way to describe the property is through an analogy to the TV series Walking Dead. The buildings and property look like Darrell and the crew came through searching for anything they could use, leaving what they couldn't use on the floor.

I've taken videos and pictures to document these crimes against our people. We're talking about hundreds of thousands in damage, neglect, and theft.

There are some challenges on the property. We've repaired the worst problems with the farm house this week. Between Will and myself we've paid for the repairs thus far. The warehouse and the red barn have no power. The power and the water to those buildings, unfortunately, was shared with one of our neighbors as is a right-of-way to drive through roughly 150 yards of our entry road. This is a mistake our Founder made that we must live with for now. We must control our entire property completely. That is one of our highest priorities. We have a hostile neighbor, Bob DeMarais, who is litigious and openly communicates with one of our worst enemies, the SPLC.

These challenges are minor. There is much to do but we are moving forward. The William Luther Pierce Conference Center (meeting hall) has several problems. One of the French drains is overflowing and causing small pools of water towards the very far end of the building, next to the kitchen. As soon as we finish on the farm house we will begin working on restoring the meeting hall. The meeting hall has no power and the water is not running. Both of those should be repaired in good time. I have scheduled an industrial electrician to come out to look at the power.

The road to the top of the property was in bad repair, but since Fred Streed gave us the Ford back hoe, fixing things like that has been much easier and faster.

Today I mowed the sides of our entry road all the way to the blue trailer owned by Boyd Thompson. Then I mowed all the grass and ran the weed eater from there to our front entrance — as close as I dared without having the police called on me next to the gate house — and then up to the “T” in the road that goes further into the property.

I listened to Dr. Pierce as I mowed his lawn today; the following ADVs: “The Big Picture”; “Toward a Sane Society”; “Understanding Our Enemies”; and “Why Our Government is Nuts.”

The sun shone brightly; it was warm and dry. Today was perfect. Today is Laura's and my anniversary of our first date. It was a lunch date so we grilled on the back patio of the main building; it was really great.

So we have challenges and we have a lot of work to do. Two of the buildings are beyond salvage; I have another four acres of grass to mow tomorrow; and our enemies live deep within our own gates. To those of us who have lived in occupied America for our whole lives any challenge we might face here in this special place is more than worth it. — David Pringle, Chief of Staff

David has quickly gotten the “hang” of our mid-sized Ford tractor and has been making good use of its backhoe and front-end loader. That tractor sat unmoved, uncovered in the woods for 12 years until Fred Streed did his magic with it and we installed a new battery back in September 2015. Dr. Pierce deeded that tractor to Fred and Fred deeded it to Chairman Williams.

Much of the month of May was spent taming the lawns. No sooner had Chairman Williams purchased the 50-inch, 23-hp Troy-Bilt mower that was pictured in the April BULLETIN than it was realized that the Alliance needed a larger mower. For around $300 more we traded up to a 54-inch, 26-hp, zero-turn Craftsman garden tractor. This Craftsman is about five years newer than was the other mower and has tackled our

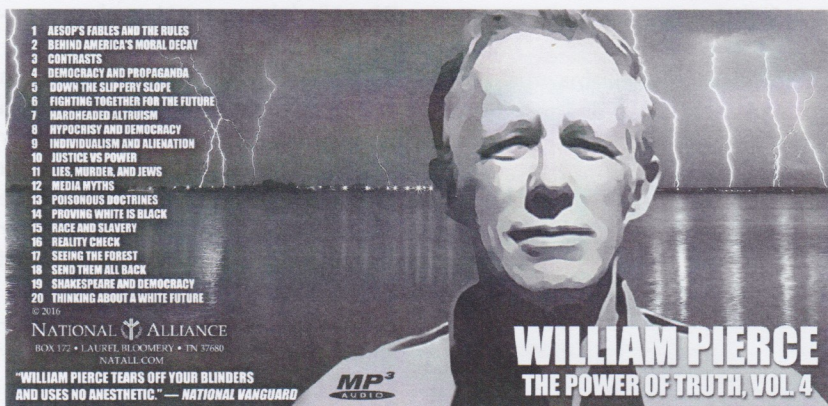

West Virginia campus’ large lawns easily, and just in time, this year.

There will be a progress report on our West Virginia community garden in the June BULLETIN. A priority project for us is to run a permanent water line to the garden this season. We can still use a dependable garden tiller if a supporter can donate one or would consider sponsoring the purchase of one. Another tool that is needed is a dependable, good-sized chain saw, preferably a Stihl brand unit.

Legal Update

After dragging their feet for more than a month, our NARRG adversaries have finally agreed to the latest possible date, 29 July, for the National Alliance’s Plea in Bar and Demurrer motions to be heard in Virginia Circuit Court. Their feeble harassment lawsuit will likely be dismissed with prejudice at that hearing, and the litigious NARRG co-plaintiffs may be ordered to reimburse us for our considerable legal expenses. All avenues of legal relief will have been exhausted for NARRG, if the suit is dismissed, except for the Supreme Court of Virginia — and it’s not likely that court would consider such a weak case.

As for the West Virginia legal soap opera, the appeal of Chairman Williams guilty verdict in Magistrate Court is tentatively docketed in the Circuit Court for some time in August. We are still wrangling with the eviction of squatter Michael Oljaca from our gate house. We must follow the law in our dealings with hostile neighbors, so follow it we will. An injunction for the squatter’s removal and for some other legal housekeeping concerning our hostile neighbors are in the works.

It is actually a good thing that Garland Corse, Oljaca, Bob DeMarais, and John McLaughlin are now allied with NARRG and are also openly working with the SPLC: It adds a strong element of clarity to the situation. Rest assured we will not be deterred from our task by such defectives as these.

A Lasting Commitment to the National Alliance

Our Chairman got a phone call earlier this month from a long-time supporter, now 80 years old, who asked how he can leave his estate to the National Alliance. He is in good health but wanted to make sure his own commitment to a White future did not end with his death. It is important for all of us to consider how we may make a continuing effort for the cause of White renewal after we die by remembering the National Alliance in our wills. It's easy to do, but members and supporters should learn how to do it right — so bequests to the Alliance aren't challenged in the courts. All of you who are interested in making such a commitment should write to Chairman Williams at the Tennessee address on the masthead or via his email address of alliancechairman@natall.com.

Volume 4 of The Power of Truth Now Available

The National Office has now produced the fourth volume in our series of the best of Dr. William Pierce's speeches and radio broadcasts. (We also plan to reissue Joseph Pryce's excellent Call of The Blood music CD and announce its availability in the BULLETIN in the near future.) This new volume contains the following works by Dr. Pierce:

1. Aesop's Fables and the Rules
2. Behind America's Moral Decay
3. Contrasts
4. Democracy and Propaganda
5. Down the Slippery Slope
6. Fighting Together for the Future
7. Hardheaded Altruism
8. Hypocrisy and Democracy
9. Individualism and Alienation

10. Justice vs Power
11. Lies, Murder, and Jews
12. Media Myths
13. Poisonous Doctrines
14. Proving White is Black
15. Race and Slavery
16. Reality Check
17. Seeing the Forest
18. Send them All Back
19. Shakespeare and Democracy
20. Thinking about a White Future

These mp3-CDs play far longer than an ordinary CD and are a bargain by far when compared with the prices at which these speeches were originally offered. The audio on the CDs has been significantly cleaned up and the very professional, polished appearance of the entire package makes them a superb, impressive recruiting tool. You can get your copy of volume 4 of this series for $16, or get five copies of the CD for $50, by writing to our postal address, or order online at

<https://natall.com/cd-offer/>

National Alliance Business Cards

Our supply of our handsome, popular National Alliance business cards (one of which is enclosed with this issue) has become nearly exhausted. We will have a large new stock of these cards by early June. They are available for the following prices: 50 cards for $4; 100 cards for $6; 500 cards for $25. You may order via our postal address or online at

<http://natall.com/cards>

Whether you're placing these eye-catching cards where an inquisitive kinsman is likely to see them or handing them out face-to-face, these cards are excellent ice breakers. It's difficult for any halfway racially-conscious White person to argue against any of the points made in the "What We Believe" statement on the back of each card.

Ads in Nationalist Periodicals

The National Alliance had a very nice advertisement for the Power of Truth CD series and for the Building a New White World booklet in May/June issue of the British periodical Heritage and Destiny. A long letter to the editor of that magazine by Chairman Williams was also published in that issue, giving our European cousins an update on how the National Alliance has been progressing. The folks at Heritage and Destiny have been good allies of our Alliance and provide their readers with an up-to-date, critical analysis of what goes on in the UK and Europe regarding racial-nationalist politics. You can write to them at 40 Birkett Drive, Ribbleson, Preston PR2 6HE United Kingdom — or visit their Web site at

Use of YouTube

For most of the month of May a 19-year-old Canadian girl calling herself Evalion had an anti-Jewish YouTube channel available online. Her videos — and her entire channel — were eventually removed by YouTube's Jewish-dominated management, as expected, but before that happened just one of Evalion's more popular videos had received nearly 280,000 views in less than a month. In that video ("The Most Anti-Semitic Video Ever") a one-minute excerpt from a riveting speech by Dr. Pierce about Jewish perfidy was featured. That is a lot of people being exposed to Dr. Pierce's teaching.

Our own YouTube channel, which can be found under the name National Vanguard Alliance, is growing steadily and now has nearly 700 subscribers as this issue of the BULLETIN goes to the printer — 300 more than we reported in March. People subscribing to, and viewing, our videos is good, but we need similar numbers of people committing to the National Alliance as dues-paying supporters if we are to expand our outreach and influence and begin to match the urgency of our noble mission. Please work hard to maximize your own personal recruiting efforts.

Correspondence

Chairman Williams, I'd like to personally thank you, while I have your attention, for saving the NA. I've heard about it from family and friends for years, mostly reminiscing about the glory days and griping about leadership. What you've built back up stands miles above what you started with, and I, for one, appreciate your efforts. Regards, — D.S., Tennessee

Chairman Williams: Great to hear from you. I listened to your three-part interview with Kevin Strom over the weekend, and I have been listening to your 2012 interview with Carolyn Yeager (I thought she was a little rude to you when she wouldn't let you finish reading Dr. Pierce's words, which I found mesmerizing). I know you don't need people to tell you what a blessing you are to the cause, but your sincerity and knowledge and ability to express it is pretty amazing. The fact that you have persevered through so many challenges is truly a testament. It kind of reminds me of when I met Jared Taylor: I asked him if he thought what he did was making any discernible difference. He said he thought it was, and then he said something like this, "Even if I thought I wasn't, I wouldn't do anything different, because I believe in this cause with every fiber of my being."

So sorry about the ridiculous assault charges, but glad you are lawyered up for an appeal. The fact that you need to defend yourself against such foolishness is just maddening. I hope the judge doing the de novo review is more reasonable. And I am glad you have good friends like Fred Streed willing to go to bat for you.

As for the support, I am glad I can help a little, but just wish I could do more. I expect to go back to Afghanistan for another year which will put a lot more money in my pocket and allow me to start sending you more. Best regards. — B.D., Virginia

Dear Chairman Williams: I applaud your dedication and hard work. Thank you. Dr. Pierce was and will always be a hero of mine. I first heard him speak on American Dissident Voices on our old dial-up Internet connection in the late 90s. I was pretty young and just married, but I was hooked on his personality and intelligence. I became a member shortly before he passed away. I saw the writing on the wall early on and distanced myself from the Alliance before it got too ugly. Anyway, thank you again for all you have done. — Private Message from Pat on Stormfront

Chairman Williams: Here's a brief description of activities I've performed for our Alliance over the past month: engaged in conversations with several White men and women at gun shows who show interest in the Turner Diaries / Hunter / Serpent's Walk / Gun Control in Germany book display, and discussed with them the Cosmotheist perspective they were written with; gave each a copy of Building a New White World (BANWW) booklet; met a former Alliance member and spoke to him about rejoining as well as about the book Cosmotheism, Divine Aryan Consciousness — From Man to Superman (100 copies ordered earlier) becoming available; have had a couple of book customers (who had been given BANWW) contact me about a follow-up meeting regarding the Alliance/Cosmotheism; posted an ad in Craigslist under their "Groups" section for building a Cosmotheist Community here in my region, and received two replies (who seemed to have prior knowledge of Dr. Pierce's works) expressing interest thus far. I gave out my personal phone number and am waiting on replies. — J.M., Iowa

Dear National Alliance: I have been following you folks since 2002. I'm glad to see the Alliance back in the right hands. My wife and I have never missed an American Dissident Voices broadcast since it has been back on the air. Thanks for everything you do. Looking forward to joining.

— D.M., Massachusetts

Dear Mr. Williams: I am puzzled by the “Stupid / Trump” flier. No, I don’t think Donald Trump is going to save us but here is the only candidate in 40 years with the guts to even say the words “Western civilization,” the guts to even talk about sending illegals home, the guts to say “stay out” to Muslims, the guts to even slightly sound like a nationalist, and you still want to p on him.

What the hell do you want? If you want to jump in bed with all the Trump-hating Jews, minorities, homos, commies, neo-cons, RINOs, and assorted internationalists, that’s your choice but leave me out. And if your real point is that we should just grab our crying towel and stay out of the political process then the above groups will be glad to give you a big smooch.

The only thing “incredibly stupid” was wasting your time and our money putting out such a misguided flier. The National Alliance can do better than this. Sincerely, — M.G., Idaho

Commentary by Chairman William White Williams

The Trump Question

M.G. in Idaho raises some points worth thinking about in his criticism of our “Incredibly Stupid” flier which we included with each BULLETIN last month. I believe it is valuable to explain our reasoning behind the wording on this flier.

M.G.’s was the only negative response we received from our supporters, but his brickbat was not unexpected, considering the popularity of Donald Trump among the long-suffering White population in this country. Some see him as the Great White Hope who will “Make America Great Again.” Granted, Trump is a better choice from a White perspective than Hillary Clinton, since he would likely nominate less ardently anti-White judges to sit on the Supreme Court than she would. That could buy some time for Whites to organize. And it’s good that Trump has shaken up the moribund, White-hating Republican Party to the extent that he has.

But America will not become great again until Whites withdraw their consent to be governed under the present democratic system. Only the National Alliance has the radical, revolutionary approach that can secure the existence of our people, and our people have no time to waste on diversions and false hopes. All our energy must go into our uncompromising program: promoting it until every White man and woman alive today is aware of it, and recruiting those who can help build our strength so we can implement it. It begins with simple White racial loyalty.

When I told our Media Director last month that we needed a new leaflet for our activists, one that can take advantage of the current quadrennial presidential election cycle that so dominates the news, he agreed. I suggested one with the theme, “We will not vote our way out of this mess; we will not buy our way out; and we will not pray our way out.” Kevin Strom took that idea and came up with the “Incredibly Stupid” flier with Mr. Trump’s mug on it. It is compelling; people will read the text, more so than had he put Clinton’s mug on it instead. People will read it because his face is there and the headline is provocative. They will read it whether they hate Trump or love him. Our message would have been the same whether we put Trump's or Clinton's — or no one's — picture there. Getting people to read what we have to say is our goal.

We know that Mr. Trump is not stupid. He is a very savvy New York City businessman who understands Jews and how they operate. He has surrounded himself with Jews, but most Americans are not interested in that fact. They are told that Trump is "racist," "sexist," "homophobic," and xenophobic.

In an article on our Web magazine on 5 May entitled "Who Controls Donald Trump," are the photos of the top 22 Jews who are closely associated with Mr. Trump, along with more than 140 Internet links to other articles explaining the influence these Jews have on this man who says he "supports Israel 1,000%." Those reading this who have computers can find that article at

<http://nationalvanguard.org/trump>

Several more prominent Jewish donors and political operatives have jumped on board the Trump train since that article appeared. A search on "Donald Trump" at our news site will turn up a dozen or more articles that reveal the true nature of Trump and his close ties to Jewry.

If Alliance members can reach like-minded kinsmen with our message by infiltrating the Trump campaign, that is worth doing and you have our blessing. But do not allow yourself to believe Donald Trump will save our race if elected to be President of the United States.

The "Incredibly Stupid" flier will help Whites realize what we Alliance members already know: That we are not going to vote our way out of the mess our race finds itself in — not on the national level, not with the drastically adverse shifts in racial demographics White Americans are experiencing in the United States.

From time to time we can still elect local officials of like race and like mind in areas where Whites are still a clear, overwhelming majority. But that must not be our primary focus. Our focus must be razor sharp, and it must be on one thing and one thing only: building the strength of the Alliance.

My favorite definition of "democracy" is this: two wolves and a sheep voting on what's for dinner. As the inevitable corruption and compromises inherent in democracy unfold, many White Americans are destined to be demoralized when they find Trump cannot and will not represent White interests as they hope he will.

As racial separatists with an actual survival program, we have the answers that our people need to hear. But they will hear and heed our message only if we have the strength to work harder than ever before — if we have the single-minded devotion to stay the course and not be distracted — if we have the unshakable will to do what must be done.
